

Curt Williams Will Work Against Convicts in Third Wrangle of Series

JACKSON UNABLE TO STOP BENDERS

Two Prison City Pitchers Are Unable to Hold Hoosier Hitters While Errors at Critical Times Allow Locals to Score.

Errors, walks and hits when the time was right all figured in giving the Hoosiers the seventh and eighth straight wins at the expense of Pres. Frank's Jackson club yesterday afternoon. It was these things that gave the Benders their runs, while it was flashy fielding and three real pegs by Ed. Diem in the first game that cut off Jackson runs when they threatened. South Bend scored the same number of counters in each game, the scores being 3-2 and 3-2.

On the hitting side of the argument, the Convicts had it all over the Hoosiers in the first game, the invaders getting 13 bangs to our seven. The Convicts tried every way to score, but it couldn't be done. They tried bunting their knicks and they tried getting them singly, but it was no use. The Hoosier fielders were on the job all the time. The only boot chalked against the Benders in the opening game was a wide peg by Stevenson. It had nothing to do with the counting.

On two different occasions perfect throws by Diem from right field cut down runs at the plate. He did his first hero work in the first when he caught Hernandez after he had gone to third on his own hit, an infield hit by Pitter and a sacrifice by Warner. Chilton fled to Diem and the Cuban tried to count, but he didn't.

Get Three in Second.

South Bend went runless in the first game until the second round. It started when Diem doubled to left. Stevenson tried to sacrifice but both of them were safe. Beall banged down to third and they played for Diem between the lines. Warner, the third sacker, threw high to Dennis and both Diem and Stevenson scored. Beall going around to third. Beall scored when Duffy drove a hit into left and it got past Cote, Duffy making second. He went to third on Broder's infield out, but died on Koehler's pop to short.

Spaulding lead off in the Convict third with a hit past Koehler and Hernandez followed with a single through short. Pitter's out advanced both of them. Hernandez was caught off second. Spaulding scored on Warner's drive to right. Diem's throw to second caught Warner as he slid in.

Grodick was hit in the third and stole, but the next three Hoosiers went down in order. Two hits and Stevenson's error on a throw filled the paths in the fourth for Jackson, but Spaulding tanned.

Beall's triple with one down helped give the Hoosiers another in the fourth. It was a drive to right just inside the line. He scored on Duffy's grounder to Hernandez. Broder went out the same way.

Catches Man at Plate.

Diem caught another one at the plate in the fifth when he nipped Warner, who got that far with two down on a walk, a steal and Lindholm's hit to right. The Convicts were all handled by Stevenson in the fifth, who made three sensational stops, one of them a hit hand grab on one that was headed for center field.

Koehler walked in the fifth and was sacrificed by Grodick. Green fled to center and a slow return gave him a chance to make third. Spaulding threw wild trying to get him at the far bag and Ben came through the lines. Diem gave Pitter a hard chance and it was good for a single, but Pitter's throw to first was off and Diem went to second. Stevenson fled to center.

Four hits in rapid succession netted two runs for the Jacksonites in the seventh. There were two gone when Hernandez hit to short. Pitter followed with a drive to center and Warner did the same thing. Hernandez and Pitter scored on Lindholm's hit to Stevenson. Chilton fled to Broder.

Koehler fled out and Grodick grounded out in the seventh, but Green doubled to right. Diem got on on Hernandez's boot. A double steal was started, but Green was grabbed at the pan.

South Bend scored thrice in the eighth. Broder walked, but was forced at second by Lake. Hernandez to Pitter. Beall singled to right, and the gardener let it get through him. Lake scoring and Beall going to third. Pitter hit down to Hernandez, who tried for Beall at the plate, but Beall was safe and so was Duffy. Broder walked and Duffy was caught off second. Broder stole and scored on another error by Hernandez on Koehler's drive. Koehler was out stealing.

The Second Game.

Loudermilk's sprained ankle had nothing to do with his throwing arm and he gave only four hits in as many different innings in the second game. There were only two men on the Jackson club who could figure Lefty Louie at all. They were Pitter and Cote, the latter getting three of the four convict crashes, one of them a triple. Pitter is the youngster who went to Detroit, but who has been sent back for seasoning.

Broder got on when Brown heaved wild on his grounder to short. Broder was out at third on Hernandez's throw on Koehler's rap. Grodick singled through Warner. Koehler and Grodick scored on Green's triple drive to right. Green scored on Diem's crash to Brown, both of them arriving safely. Stevenson grounded to Warner. Cote got the first Jackson hit in the third, a single to left. He got to second on an infield out and Hernandez walked, but they didn't score. Cote got another hit in the fifth and got around to third when Beall missed Baxter's grounder. He didn't score that time either.

Five in the Fifth.

South Bend's large inning was the fifth, five runs going over. Beall got to second on Hernandez's error when he dropped a throw from Brown. Loudermilk's out put him on third. Border walked. Beall scored on Koehler's fly to left. Border going to second on the throw. Border scored on Grodick's single to center. Grodick making second on the throw. Cote, Dick scored on Green's single to right. Diem tripled, scoring Green. Stevenson made three bags on a hit to left center. Diem scoring. Lake grounded to Warner.

Pitter hit to center in the sixth, but was forced at second by Warner. Loudermilk to Koehler. Warner went to second on a passed ball. Stevenson pegged wide on Lindholm's offering. Lindholm going to second. Warner scored on Chilton's grounder to Stevenson. Brown fled to left.

Cote tripled in the seventh and was hit at third on Stevenson's throw-in. The ball bounded away and Cote scored. Cable batted for Dennis but he fanned. Baxter fled to Beall and Hernandez fanned.

WIN IN EIGHTH.

With the count 1 to 0 against them, the Sunnysides staged a hitting rally in the eighth and won by the score of 3 to 2 from the White Eagles Sunday afternoon. Schlegel made a sensational throw from right field, cutting off a White Eagle run in the ninth.

BAN AND GILMORE SHOULD STOP WAR

Not the Conflict in Europe But the More Interesting Bloodless Battle Between the Feds and Organized Baseball.

BY FRANK G. MENKE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—It's about time that Ban Johnson, John Tener and Jimmy Gilmore got together in some quiet corner and decided that their own interests would be served best by ending the baseball warfare. The vast majority of fans are tired of the baseball war. They prefer peace. Give it to them and they'll soon be trekking back to the parks. They deserted the parks this year not so much because they have lost their love for the national game but in silent protest against the constant mud-slinging that the baseball conflict has caused.

The fans want baseball—not baseball law suits. They aren't interested in those. They don't care much about the merits of the ten-day clause or the contract itself so long as they are sure of seeing baseball. Of seeing the first class variety that sends the blood coursing a bit faster through the veins, that sends a thrill of delight chasing through the framework. The fans aren't vitally interested either in whether the Federalists win or whether organized baseball wins. Their main interest is to see baseball perpetuated as a sport. They have known for years that it is a great commercial proposition, but they don't care to have all the money grabbing acts of the magnates paraded before their eyes. It revolts them. It doesn't interest.

The fans aren't interested much either in whether Ban Johnson thinks Jimmy Gilmore ought to be sent to Siberia for 16 million years, or whether Gilmore thinks Garry Herrmann ought to be a fellow as he is himself. Such things might have been a bit diverting for a time, but that time has passed. They bore and they disgust.

Organized baseball has waged a bitter fight against the Feds. And even the most bitter enemies of the Federalists have put up a game fight. They horned into a situation where even angels may have feared to tread. They found the enemy waiting with drawn clubs and loaded machine guns. But they waded right in.

It's nearly four months since the Feds opened their season. It was predicted that they wouldn't last until May 1. Then the prediction was shifted forward to June 1. The next date for the blow-up was July 1, then July 15, then Aug. 1. But there hasn't been any detonation.

The Feds have about $5,000,000 at stake and they aren't going to quit the battle, especially since they won out in the important Johnson and Chase law suits. Most of the magnates in the new league are plentifully supplied with money. They went into the new league proposition with their eyes open. They knew they wouldn't make much progress the first year, but they gambled on the succeeding years. It looks like a pretty good gamble at that.

There are some magnates within the confines of organized baseball who are wise men. In the last two months they have concluded that peace is a much cheaper proposition than warfare. And they are for peace, and are trying to swing into line the magnates who are still keen for warfare.

Most of the organized clubs will lose money this year. And even if the attendance does chirp up next year they are sure to suffer more losses if law suits continue, as the Feds are planning a new raid on the big stars. To keep these men the organized moguls will have to bid high. That means cluttering up the payroll with salaries so huge that they will overbalance the receipts.

Peace now before the players can get many more chances at playing both ends against the middle for big salaries will save the magnates many thousands of dollars. Or shall it be a continuation of war that so far has proven futile and that gives little hope of being ultimately successful?

RAIN SAVES OLD BUFFALO RACE STANDS

Fire Starting in Dry Grass Destroys Fourteen Stables and Hay Barns.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Fire this afternoon swept through the handsome buildings at the famous old Kenilworth race track and wiped out practically every building except the grandstand. Fourteen of the stables, the hay barns and the caretaker's cottage were destroyed, and the grandstand would have gone in a short time had not a terrific rain storm arrived at the right minute.

The fire started in some tall grass and fanned by a high wind, spread with great rapidity. The stables were empty as the track has been out of commission since the Hughes bill killed racing in New York state. The track was one of the finest in the east. It is owned by August Belmont. The loss on the building destroyed today will reach over $75,000.
